

Summary

This document details all the processes that were followed for the development of the system, which will be used in the Direction of Appraisals and Catastros the Illustrious Municipality of Ibarra.

In the design and development of the system, the paper presents five chapters. In each concepts, research, tools that have served to reach the culmination of the system and detailed written work.

In chapter one, a description of the institution is made, and the main concepts for the project.

In chapter two are described in a short form that served as tools for the development and programming of the system.

In chapter three, the description of the approach of the solution is performed, the business vision.

Chapter four, the UML graphics, which were the basis to understand and translate the ideas in the development of system.

In chapter five, you get to draw conclusions from the work and recommendations to certain officials, users and managers is presented.